

Catholic Trivia

Q. Is the virtue of faith necessary for salvation?

A. Yes, the virtue of faith is absolutely necessary because no one can be saved without sanctifying grace; and sanctifying grace cannot exist without habitual faith. Christ himself said, “he who does not believe will be condemned” (Mark16:16).

Reference: The Question and Answer Catholic Catechism (#958).